Section A: Introduction

Thank you for your interest in serving your community as a Council Candidate for the upcoming municipal election in the Township of North Glengarry!

Serving as an elected official is an important responsibility that requires commitment of time and energy over a 4-year term. While the experience is both rewarding and challenging, it is also a meaningful way to contribute to your community.

If you are running for Council for the first time, you may find the election process both exciting and complex. This information package has been prepared to help guide you through the process and provide an overview of the requirements for candidates.

The Municipal Elections Act outlines the rules and requirements for municipal elections in Ontario. Key information from the Act has been summarized in this package for your convenience. However, candidates are encouraged to familiarize themselves with the Act. The most current version is available on the Province of Ontario's E-Laws website.

Please note that the information in this package is intended as a guide only. It does not replace the legislation and may not cover every requirement. Candidates are responsible for ensuring they meet all eligibility requirements, comply with election rules, and follow campaign finance regulations.

As the election period progresses, additional information about the election process will be shared as it becomes available. We encourage you to review materials carefully so that you understand your responsibilities as a candidate.

We wish you the best in your campaign and encourage you to contact us if you have any questions. Most importantly, take a deep breath, enjoy the experience, and thank you for your willingness to serve your community!
